

Program Guidelines

- NARFE Life Membership is not transferable and ceases upon death. A spouse may not inherit a NARFE Life Membership.
- Spouses of NARFE members and persons eligible to join also may enroll as NARFE Life members.
- NARFE Life Membership dues are not refundable.
- You may purchase a NARFE Life Membership for another person, providing the recipient meets the eligibility requirements.
- Full payment must be received before the NARFE Life Membership card, certificate and pin are mailed. All other benefits are available to NARFE Life Members upon enrollment.
- Current members may convert to National Life Membership at any time. Previous dues payments are not credited toward NARFE Life Membership payments.
- NARFE Life Member dues do not include a local chapter. If you maintain membership in a local chapter, you will receive a renewal notice for chapter dues each year.

What Is a Life Membership in NARFE?

NARFE Life Membership is a special category of NARFE membership. By becoming a NARFE Life Member, you affirm your ongoing support of NARFE's mission to serve federal employees and retirees. NARFE Life Members are committed to the future of NARFE as an organization and the well-being of its members.

Important features:

- NARFE Life Membership offers a hedge against future dues increases.
- NARFE dues are paid for life. Any chapter dues are paid annually.
- NARFE Life Membership dues are based on age categories.
- NARFE Life Membership dues may be paid in one single payment or in quarterly installments within the first year of NARFE Life Membership.
- Current members may choose to enroll in the NARFE Life Membership program at any time.

NARFE Life Members Are Special!

In addition to all of the quality benefits and services of regular membership, NARFE Life Members enjoy a prestigious status and receive special recognition.

Chapter Dues

New NARFE Members may add a chapter membership. If joining as a NARFE Life Member and local chapter member, the chapter dues must be included with your first Life Membership payment. Chapter dues will be invoiced annually. To find a chapter in your area, please call 800-456-8410 or visit www.narfe.org.

Current chapter members will be billed for chapter dues in the usual cycle and are not required to submit them with the NARFE Life Membership application.

FOR NEW MEMBERS

NARFE is the only organization solely dedicated to protecting and preserving the pay and benefits of federal workers and retirees.

NARFE Is Your Legislative Voice. With a dedicated team of legislative specialists and lobbyists, backed by a national network of grassroots activists, NARFE is an influential voice in Congress for the federal community.

NARFE Is Your Information Resource. Through the monthly narfe magazine, weekly e-newsletter, online educational events and on-staff federal benefits specialists, NARFE members are better informed about their benefits than the average Fed.

Who Can Join?

- Retirees
- Active employees
- Spouses and surviving spouses of those eligible to join NARFE
- Former employees
- A former spouse who is legally entitled to a federal survivor annuity

Chapter membership is optional. Learn about a local chapter at www.narfe.org. Chapter dues are not included in NARFE Life Membership dues.

FOR CURRENT MEMBERS

- Annual Members: If you are a current member paying annually, your NARFE dues will no longer be invoiced. If you belong to a local chapter, or choose to add one, you will be billed annually for chapter dues.
- Dues Withholding Members: If your dues are currently withheld from your annuity check by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, the dues withholding will stop 60 to 90 days after your Life Membership is processed. If you maintain a chapter membership, you will be invoiced annually for your chapter dues.
